

Excess Elite

What it covers

Excess Elite is quick and easy for brokers to use. With capacity up to £70 million, it usually takes just a couple of minutes to get a quote. It can cover any combination of excess public liability and products liability, employers' liability or third party property damage motor liability; while limits, policy periods and attachment points can be easily adjusted to match clients' needs.

Excess Public Liability

Excess Products Liability

Excess Employers' Liability

Excess Commercial Motor (third party property damage)

Inclusive support services:

Crisis Containment Management

- Professional communications expertise (eg internal communications to staff and external communications with media) after an incident that could trigger cover under the excess policy
- Delivered by an approved Crisis Communications Company up to the value of £100,000
- Crisis Containment can be invoked by a key executive of the client following any event which it is believed could result in a damages claim exceeding the primary limits and which is accepted by the Crisis Management Firm

Inclusive support services:

Medical and Vocational Rehabilitation

- Excess Elite includes medical and vocational rehabilitation services for the victims of serious personal injury.
- Services may include private treatment where NHS delays are detrimental, complementary treatments, trauma counselling and vocational consultancy
- Medical and vocational rehabilitation is provided by AIG owned rehabilitation company, who have helped thousands of victims of workplace injury and illness back to work
- Cover is triggered by an accident that could breach the primary layer
