A lifeline if you need one

Lifeline Plus provides insured persons with business travel services, including all-important emergency assistance, and a range of online and telephone based services that can be used at any time – not just when a claim is being made.

Our assistance website provides travellers with in-depth, easy-to-find health and safety information.

All the emergency and assistance services described are subject to the policy cover.

Services before you leave

Security awareness training*

Before you travel on business you can access our e-learning security and situation awareness programme. It's simple to access and use and provides practical advice about;

- personal security
- preparation and arrival
- travel health risks
- getting around
- street crime and robbery
- carjacking
- kidnapping
- terrorism and unrest.

Country reports

Our country reports provide guidance about relevant issues in virtually every country you are likely to visit. You can create a customised report, which you can print or email to a preferred email address.

Emergency document storage*

You can upload important travel documents and medical details to a secure personal website.

Global news watch

Subscribe to email reports each weekday covering; political instability, civil unrest, disease outbreaks, crime patterns and terrorism news, from around the world.

Services when you're travelling

Emergency medical and travel assistance

If you need assistance call our 24/7 emergency helpline on +44 (0)1273 552 922. Our multi-lingual staff have experience dealing with hospitals and clinics worldwide, and are supported by medical consultants and nursing staff, to help you get the most appropriate medical treatment.

Other assistance services

- Emergency message relay – to family and business associates
- Lost ticket & baggage location – help with replacement of lost or stolen tickets, passports or travel documents, and location of lost baggage
- Port/airport assistance – we'll liaise with your carrier if you're delayed on the way to your departure point and make onward travel arrangements, if necessary
- Legal referral – to an Embassy, Consulate or other source of legal advice, including an English speaking lawyer.

Security travel alerts

An emergency alert service via text or email. Let us have your contact mobile phone number or email address, together with the country you are visiting, and we will send text alerts and emails that will keep you ahead of changing political situations or severe weather conditions which might disrupt your trip.

Claims information

You can make a claim by contacting the department responsible for your employer's insurance. A claim form should be completed and submitted to the Insurer. This can be obtained from your employer or can be downloaded from www.mylifeline.co.uk

Please note: unless your employer has pre-authorized all claims, payment of a claim will require your employer's authorisation. All telephone calls to numbers shown in this brochure may be recorded for training or quality monitoring purposes.

Cover queries

Any questions you have relating specifically to cover should be directed to your employer who arranged this insurance cover.

Service providers

Non-insurance benefits which are provided through Travel Guard offer traveller assistance through coordination, negotiation, and consultation using an extensive network of worldwide third party partners. Expenses for goods and services provided by third party partners are the responsibility of the traveller.

Whilst AIG Europe Limited (AIG) takes every care in selecting business partners to provide the assistance services described in this brochure, AIG cannot accept responsibility for any advice given, or information or assistance provided.

* These services are provided by third party companies.
